The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus said,
 "This is my blood
 of the covenant, which will be shed for many.
 Amen, I say to you,
 I shall not drink again
 the fruit of the vine
 until the day
 when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Mark 14:24-25

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The origins of today's solemnity lie in thirteenth-century Belgium. In those days, people seldom received Holy Communion, and never from the chalice. A nun in a troubled convent, Juliana of Liège, devoted her life to stirring up love for the Eucharist, lobbying for a feast day to honor the Blessed Sacrament with Masses and processions.

Juliana may have been inspired by the Ascension Day processions in nearby Bruges. Crusaders brought a treasure home to Bruges from Constantinople in 1204: a reliquary said to contain a cloth from Joseph of Arimathea with which he had helped prepare the body of Jesus for burial. The stain on the cloth was said to be the holy blood itself, and so the people of Bruges built a great basilica to house the relic. Bruges became a great center of pilgrimage because of this treasure, and the procession of the Holy Blood is still one of the greatest festivals in Belgium today. The bishop carries the relic through the narrow streets, and the people wear medieval costumes and act out scenes from the Bible.

To Our Parish family at St. Margaret Mary and St. Catherine's:

It is with a heavy but grateful heart that I write this. After 35 years in the parish, 25 of those serving you as a Deacon, my wife and I are leaving. I have been re-assigned to St. Anthony in Elmendorf effective July 2nd.

I would like to thank each and every one of you that accepted us in the parish all those many years ago and have supported my ministry.

To all the teenagers whose lives I have touched in the last quarter century; continue having faith in Jesus Christ and to show love and compassion to each other. I assure you that I consider myself blessed to have had the opportunity to grow in Christ's teaching with you. I shall never forget you. To the rest of the parishioners, I thank you for the journey.

It has been a long and pleasant journey. But like all good things, they come to an end. The Lord has closed a door, but He has opened a window and I trust that He has a reason for sending me to St. Anthony. My ministry is not ending, only the location is changing.

Again, I thank you for the opportunity to share God's love with you.

Peace,

Deacon Zeke and Mildred Moczygemba
