TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The song of the angels, "Holy, Holy, Holy," resounds from our lips at every Mass. There was a widespread belief in the first religions of the world that God stirred creation into being by a word, a song, a musical note. Music and a sense of God's presence have always been inseparable. In the liturgy, your voice is invited into this song as the priest names the reasons for our praise. "Heaven and earth are full of your glory," and we are not passive onlookers, but participants in this glory. Catholic prayer no longer assigns this angelic hymn to a choir, but gives it to you to sing. Even if your voice is thought to be suitable only for a well-insulated shower stall, you are called into this song.

We are born to sing—just listen to a baby testing the full range of newly-discovered vocal abilities. Soon we get shushed and hushed into quiet, and given lots of messages that our voices are unwanted, and that we need to raise our hands in order to be heard. All of that is overturned in liturgy, the place where God waits to hear us come alive in the song of all creation. In heaven, everyone's in the choir; why not start practicing now?

To all members of St. Margaret Mary Parish:

We have recently made a report to the members of the Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of San Antonio of clergy sexual abuse of minors from 1940 through the present. The following priests who have been accused of sexual abuse in the Archdiocese of San Antonio were assigned to minister in your parish:

- ◇ John Keane was assigned to your parish in 1957. He left the Archdiocese of San Antonio in 1961 and died in 2001.
- ◇ Marion Swize was assigned to your parish from 1964-1966. In 1969, he left the priesthood and subsequently married.
- ◇ Jose Aviles was assigned to your parish from 1990-1993. He was removed from priestly ministry in 2004 and died in 2008.
- ◇ Michael Kenny was assigned to your parish from 1995-1997. He was removed from ministry in 2000 and is no longer authorized to function as a priest.

The full report can be found on our webpage at archsa.org.

I share this information with you with the hope that any members of our community affected by sexual abuse will feel encouraged to seek all needed pastoral support or counseling as part of their healing process. If we can be of assistance to you, or if you have questions or concerns in regard to these priests, please contact Mr. Steve Martinez, Director of the Office of Victim Assistance and Safe Environment at 210-734-7786 or 877-700-1888.

I pledge my commitment to continue working to make every Catholic Church, School and Institution a safe harbor for all of our children. Please join me in prayer as we reach out to any and all who may be victims of sexual abuse.

Archbishop Gustavo García-Siller, M.Sp.S.
